Paul G. Carey, et al,)	MOTION TO REFRAIN USE
)	OF SOVEREIGN CITIZEN
Defendant(s).)	FRCP Rule 7(b)(1)

NOW COMES the above-named Richard Sposato, Petitioner herein, and moves for the stoppage of use of the term "Sovereign Citizen", as follows:

CLAIMS OF FACT

1. That, the term "Sovereign Citizen" used by Government Agencies and/or employees such as judges, is not understood by this Plaintiff, as one cannot be both Sovereign and a Citizen in United States Law.
2. That, the term "Sovereign Citizen" has already been used by all Judges and Magistrates in this case to characterize Plaintiff's actions and/or legal theories, to which Plaintiff vehemently objects to.
3. That, the term "Sovereign Citizen" is defamatory in nature towards Plaintiff, and has a negative connotation, with regards to United States and/or American Jurisprudence.
4. That, referencing the term "Sovereign Citizen" as a characterization of Plaintiff's legal theories, argument, and/or actions, severely prejudices his ability to have a positive outcome pertaining to his Complaint.

5. That, Plaintiff's legal argument in his Complaint and Motions is fully substantiated by the Supreme Law of the Land and its Codes.

The above Motion for Refrain of Use is applicable to this court by application of FRCP Rule 7(b)(1).

RELIEF

- a) Plaintiff seeks to refrain Trial judge Glenn T. Suddaby and all other Judges, Magistrates, Attorney's, and persons appearing in this case from using the term "Sovereign Citizen" in all spoken language during hearings, conferences or Court appearances, as well as in all further documents filed into this case.

I, Richard Sposato affirm this October 31, 2024, under penalties of perjury under the laws of New York, which may include a fine or imprisonment, that the foregoing is true to the best of my belief, and I understand that this document may be filed in an action or proceeding in a court of law.
